

AbleVision Ireland 2013 Film Festival

	AbleVision Ireland 2013 Film Festival is a competition for short films and digital media made in partnership with people with Intellectual Disabilities.* Please post the application form on page 4 along with the DVD or HD DVD to AbleVision Ireland at the address listed below. Entry is free!
	All films that are sent to us must be a maximum of 5 minutes in length.
	All films entered must be made in conjunction with people with an intellectual disability and must be as a result of real partnership between all involved.
	There is a Prize Fund of €1000 with a 1st prize for Best Film of €500 and the Rory Staunton Memorial Award. There will be other prizes on the night.
	The Theme of the Festival is Respect for People with Intellectual Disabilities This Theme to be interpreted by the entrants.

	Any Genre of Film may be used including Animation and Documentary.
	Successful Films may be broadcast on Information TV SKY 212.
	All films and digital media must be posted to us at the address listed below by 12th April 2013.
	We can only return your DVD if you send us an envelope stamped with the right postage cost
	You must have permission from all people appearing in the film.
	You must have permission for all music used in your film or digital media
	If you want to know anything else please ask us:

	Contact Details: Audrey Farrell AbleVision Ireland Barlow House Drogheda Co Louth Phone: 0861744994 Email: audrey@ablevisionireland.com
Rory Staunton Award	This award is made in memory of Rory Staunton who died tragically at the age of 12. Working with the Special Olympics in New York he led a campaign in his school fostering social responsibility and seeking greater respect for people with Intellectual Disabilities.
	* Working in Partnership – The entry can be made by a person without an Intellectual Disability as long as they involve a person or people with Intellectual Disabilities and work in partnership. AbleVision Ireland can help to develop partnerships by creating local networks. If you need some help or wish to make some contacts please get in touch: Audrey@ablevisionireland.com or 086 1744994

Application Form for AbleVision Ireland Film Festival 2013

 Name of Entrants
 Address of Entrants
 Telephone Number
 Email Address
 Name of Film
 What is the Film about? Less than 50 words please!
	We are going to make a DVD for AbleVision which will be sold to raise funds for the organisation. Please tick here if you will let us use your film as part of this DVD YES <input type="checkbox"/>